

MISS HAY WEDS MR. PAYNE WHITNEY; PRESIDENT OFFERS TOAST TO BRIDE.

Cabinet Ministers, Diplomats, Army and Navy Officers and Other Distinguished Guests Attend the Ceremony To-Day in Washington.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 6.—Before a brilliant assemblage that included President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the Cabinet family, the entire Diplomatic Corps, distinguished officers of the army and navy, Judges of the Supreme Court, notables of Congress and the Government service and hundreds of guests from all parts of the country, Miss Helen Hay, second daughter of Secretary of State John Hay and Mr. Payne Whitney, second son of William C. Whitney, of New York, were married at noon in the Church of the Covenant.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Tun J. Hamlin, pastor of the church, with Rev. S. H. Eden, pastor of the Stone Presbyterian Church, of Cleveland, assisting. The prayerbook from which the service was read was brought from Cleveland by Dr. Hayden. It was the same in which the marriage service of the present Secretary of State and his bride, Miss Clara Stone, had been performed.

Because of the recent bereavement in the Hay family it was intended to make to-day's ceremony as simple as possible, but the desire of the bride's family could hardly be carried out because of the official character of the guests.

A White-Rose Wedding.
It was a white-rose wedding. The altar was draped with white roses. A white carpet had been spread over the floor. The walls were covered with white flowers. The bride wore a white gown. The groom wore a white suit. The ceremony was performed in a white room.

Macdonald Obtained admission on Plea of Presenting a Petition—Committed Suicide.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 6.—M. Kamtcheff, the Minister of Public Instruction, was assassinated today in his study by a Macedonian, who pretended to be a petitioner.

The assassin subsequently committed suicide by shooting himself.

Bulgarian officials live in constant fear of assassination. Prince Ferdinand's life has been repeatedly threatened and a guard is kept always about the sovereign.

The little Balkan State is the centre of the Balkan struggle, in which national and personal intrigues perpetually threaten the general peace.

Several years ago the whole world was shocked by the horrible assassination of Prime Minister Stambouloff, the strong man of Bulgaria, in the streets of Sofia.

The Minister was literally hacked to pieces, but he lived for several days, though with hands were cut off by his assassins. His widow is said to preserve the hands of her husband as a memento of her grief.

Miss Ellen M. Stone, an American missionary, was kidnapped by brigands several months ago in the Bulgarian mountains. The crime was attributed to Macedonian slavers who sought to drive the government to difficulties with the United States and other powers. All efforts to effect Miss Stone's release have failed. The American Macedonia Committee has kept in a continual agitation in the Balkan states for years.
